

I do not want New Jersey's strict "Do Not Call" law to be weakened to the level of the proposed federal legislation. If anything the New Jersey law should be strengthened to not allow politicians to make unsolicited calls to people on the list.